Dear Son;

Your letter received yesterday with request for the suit. Papa will send it off today by parcel post. hope it gets to you when you want it. I was amused when Papa returned yesterday from taking ϵ to school and I to train when he told me - not one of the three was positive as to your correct address. We noted the list of what you are taking this term and we think they will prove profitable - get all you can from it in store. Papa saw grandmother yesterday and "the show people" are there again. She is as well as ever now. It is bright this a.m. and we are doing the laundry work.
Papa says if you should see Dr. Coyne to tell him it is not such a hurry about that party. Papa will see him when he comes thru here. I'll not write a letter this week as Joseph is there & can tell and bring the news.
Hope you keep well. It seems odd for your father and I to be alone the house is so big. Love mother
