

There to get Harry to bring her back and her answer was "I do" That was yesterday at noon and since then I have accomplished many odd things I have wanted to do. I had no idea I wanted upon her so much.

Rosser Rosser's sale was today.
Papa went hoping to get a disc cultivator but when he got there it proved to be a double shovel cultivator. All the stock sold high.
Elsie came home tonight with word that Brother May was very sick at Ardmore. A telegram to Mrs M. said "There was no hope" He left home Sat. night and was taken sick on Sunday. The word came and Mrs M. left early Monday.
Isn't that terrible?
Joseph and Elsie are working out problems in Gnom. She has five for tomorrow and Papa is funding.

Now I'll say good night.
I'll write to you soon again that you forget.

Dear Son:-

Your very nicely typewritten letter came to me on time and we were all glad to get..

The item I gave you about George and Harry Fields has been contradicted in the Opticians, so of course, there is no truth in it..

I do hope your fountain pen is "a dandy" and you are able to keep it. Your sister lost hers up at Mexico she believes, anyway, it is among the missing; hold on to yours.

and Mr. B. should you ought to go to the Court House.

What were you wanting from cheap?

I believe Mrs Watkins has not been well for some time and Miss Rosalie thinks it is time her mother had a change. and I presume she is going to appoint herself a committee of one to escort her off.

as to your funds - I am glad you are taking care that you have enough to carry you through this term.

I hope you had a fine time out at Rock bridge last Saturday - Outings like that do you good, I am sure.

If you wont be able to write to me again before I see you ~~of~~ you will probably continue your correspondence with "Dory" and maybe there I'll get news?

"His Majesty" sent Elsie a picture of his room-mate and himself taken upon the golf links - He is rather nice looking but I do not know whether it is a good likeness or not. Tell me what you think of him..

That drill is sure "preety good" How did you manage to get him so regular - Oh! I see it is the regular drill =

Papa and Joseph took your Grandmother over "to have a look" at Harrys last Monday P. M. She was so glad she was going home she could not sleep on Sunday night - I told her as she left when she got tired over
