

C. C. MOMBERGER DIED HERE SUNDAY

Successful Farmer Was Prominent in Masonic Lodge Circles Here.

Carl Casper Momberger, highly respected and aged resident of this community, passed away Sunday evening, September 29, at 6:30 o'clock, at the home of his son, Harry Momberger near this city, after an illness of short duration. His death was caused by heart trouble.

Mr. Momberger was born in St. Louis, Missouri, on August 12, 1858, and later moved to Wellsville, where he had lived almost the entire period of time since 1875.

He was a successful farmer and was prominent in local Masonic circles, always taking an active part in the work of the local organization.

He was united in marriage in 1893 to Miss Christina Lee Jacobs and to this union three children were born, namely, Joe. J. Momberger of American Falls, Idaho; Harry L. Momberger of near this city, and Mrs. H. B. Rigby of Rexbury, Idaho, all of whom together with five grandchildren, survive. His wife preceded him to the grave several years ago.

Funeral services were held at 9 o'clock Thursday morning, October 3, at the home and were conducted by Rev. S. E. McDonald, after which the body was taken to St. Louis where interment was made in the Bellfountain cemetery, under the auspices of the Wellsville Masonic Lodge.

The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of the entire community.
